Interfor Awards Scholarships to Local Recipients

Ten aspiring students from the US South are this year's recipients of Interfor's Tolleson-Wood Family Scholarship, which provides financial assistance to support students' academic and career goals.

The recipients were chosen for their academic achievements, volunteer and community contributions, and educational and career goals. They all have parents or guardians who work at Interfor's US South operations. Each student has received $2,000.

"The Tolleson-Wood Family Scholarship fulfills our commitment to support our employees, their families, and the communities where we operate," says Ian Fillinger, Senior Vice President, Head of Operations. "Interfor is proud to support these students to achieve their academic dreams, and we wish them the best of luck."

This year's recipients:

- McKenzie Baldwin (Monticello, AR) plans to attend the University of Arkansas (Monticello) where she'll focus on sciences and graduate with a degree in pharmacy.
- Jillian Edenfield (Swainsboro, GA) plans to get her Bachelor of Science degree in biology from East Georgia State College, and then enter the faculty of cosmetic dentistry at the University of Georgia.
- Elisha Flowers (Peachtree City, GA) is approaching her second year at Kennesaw State University, and plans to become a veterinarian.
- T'Ambra Glenn (Eatonton, GA) is studying nursing at Clayton State University, and plans to become a nurse anesthetist.
- Bailey Hamilton (Peachtree City, GA) is planning a career as a veterinarian specializing in equine surgery. Bailey begins her post-secondary education at the University of South Carolina (Aiken) this fall.
- Luis Ortega (Perry, GA) is pursuing a career in electrical engineering and will attend the University of Georgia in the fall.
- Kaitlyn Purser (Thomaston, GA) will be pursuing a career in Physical Therapy. Kaitlyn is attending East Georgia State College in September.
- Mariela Rodriquez (Perry, GA) is a Wesleyan College student who plans to graduate with a degree in early childhood education and becoming a primary teacher.
- Emily Rogers (Swainsboro, GA) will attend East Georgia State College in the fall to pursue a science degree. Emily would like to become a radiologist.
- Cynthia Rueda (Preston, GA) is a freshman at Georgia Southwestern State University where she is pursuing a Bachelor of Nursing.

The Tolleson-Wood Family Scholarship recognizes the Tolleson-Wood family's significant contribution to the lumber industry, local communities and well-being of its employees in Georgia.
